Re: New employee

Aaron Miller

On Monday, September 10, Aaron Miller from Brownstown, just east of Vandalia, became a member of the Heneghan and Associates P.C. engineering team.

Miller received an associate of science and engineering degree from Lake Land Community College in Mattoon during the spring 2005. He went on to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville where he received a bachelor degree in civil engineering this past spring.

After graduating from SIUE, Miller performed construction inspection work for the Missouri Department of Transportation. Miller will now be working out of Heneghan's Centralia office, with other offices located in Jerseyville, Godfrey, and Columbia.

"It's an honor to be part of Heneghan and Associates," Miller said. "I look forward to what the future brings."

For more than 20 years, Heneghan and Associates, P.C. has provided engineering and surveying services to more than 20 municipalities, county, state, and federal agencies, water districts, educational institutions, developers, and more.
